

Questionnaire

Consider the travel options bellow and answer: which one do you prefer?

Open a text file on your computer and write an answer file in the following format. Each line contains your answer for a question. The first line contains your answer for the first question, the second line for the second question, and so on. Write 1 if you prefer the first option, 2 if you prefer the second, or 0 if you are indifferent between the options. There is an example of an answer file at the end of this document.
